A new Pastoral Year, A 73rd Season for Inter-Par

Again this year we intend to present you with news from across the Diocese of Hearst-Moosonee, from the Church in Canada, the Pope and the Universal Church.

And off we go again! A new pastoral year, a 73rd season for Inter-Par.

The return to school once again marks the beginning of a new pastoral year. Although the summer season is filled with moments of vacation and rest, it is not a complete pause. Bishop Tremblay has been very busy.

To begin the year, we would like to introduce the arrival among us of two priests from Nigeria, as well as the blessing of the new church in Attawapiskat (next week's Inter-Par).

A warm welcome to Fr. Christian & Fr. Hilary

On August 20, Fathers Christian E. Attama and Hilary O. Agbo, originally from the Diocese of Benue in Nigeria, arrived at the Timmins airport. Bishop Pierre-Olivier Tremblay, O.M.I., and Father John Okoh were present to welcome them. After a few days in Kapuskasing with Father Paul Awowole and the chancellor—during which they completed several Canadian administrative procedures—they took part on Monday in the ordination of Bishop Roch Martin, the new bishop of Timmins. The next day, they took part in the blessing and consecration of the new church in Attawapiskat.

From August 26 to 28, they spent time with Father John Okoh in Cochrane. All three come from the same diocese; in fact, John and Christian were in university at the same time. During their stay in Cochrane, they completed their G1 driver's test. Believe me: anyone who can drive in Nigeria can certainly drive in Canada—except in winter, of course. They will complete their G2 after taking driving lessons in the Longlac–Geraldton area.

On August 28, after visiting the bishop's residence and the cathedral in Hearst, Bishop Tremblay drove them to the region of Longlac, Geraldton, and Aroland, where they were introduced to the various communities during the Sunday Masses. They spent a few days with Father Hugo Tremblay, who introduced them to pastoral realities and the basics of mission work in this vast region.

As for Father Hugo, he will continue his ministry in the Sault Ste. Marie area. We thank him warmly for his years of service among us and wish him well in his new ministry.

Father Christian Attama is appointed pastor of Saint John the Baptist in Longlac and Saint Teresa of the Child Jesus in Geraldton.

Father Hilary Agbo is appointed pastor of the missions Infant Jesus in Long Lake #58 (58 & 77) and Immaculate Heart of Mary in Aroland.

For both Christian and Hilary, this is their first visit to Canada, and first outside of Nigeria as well.

We keep them in our prayers, as well as their families who have allowed them to go forth.

We entrust their ministry to Saint Teresa of the Child Jesus, the universal patroness of missions.

We thank them for their dedication and their missionary spirit.

May the Virgin Mary continue to watch over you.

Thank you to our sponsors!
